Railroad and Steamship Carriers Will Come Under Scrutiny of Probers Who Will Endeavor to Perfect System to Meet Demands of Domestic and Foreign Commerce

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Washington, Nov. 20.—In opening the first session of the joint congressional committee to investigate railroad problems today, Senator Francis G. Newlands, of Nevada, the chairman, explained that the inquiry would cover a wide field. He said: "It will relate to every phase of the transportation question, the rail carriers, the river carriers and the ocean carriers and the perfection of a harmonious system of transportation embracing rail, river and ocean carriers that will meet the demands of interstate as well as foreign commerce and it will also be applied to the telegraph and telephone lines, express companies and other public utilities."

"It will embrace not only the subject of government control and regulation of these facilities, but also the wisdom and the feasibility of government ownership and control as compared with government ownership and operation."

Referring to Government ownership Senator Newlands said:

"It is a question that must be faced. Other nations far advanced in civilization have adopted the system. Recently, under the stress of war, almost all European governments have taken over the railways. Whether that will be a permanent taking over or only a temporary one, it demonstrates that in conditions of great crisis when autocratic powers must be given to the government, all intelligent governments drift toward absolute and complete operation of the roads as the only solution of the question."

"If we pursue the exercise and the study of government regulation wisely, persistently and energetically, we may create such a system of regulation as will meet every requirement, both in time and peace and of war, and in exigency of crisis. But it seems to be a wise thing for the government of the United States to ascertain now the history of the countries that have adopted government ownership and operation of railways, and to watch the experiences of the European countries in this great war in this regard."

"In this connection will come the question of the method of taking over the railways. Shall it be accomplished by an actual valuation of the railways and a condemnation of them or shall they be taken over by the easier method of taking over the stocks and the bonds at their market value thus at one step having the national government take the position to stockholders and security holders in these great corporations."

Strikes as a means of settling labor disputes, Senator Newlands characterized as "the most barbaric and brutal of processes."

"The question is," he said, "whether a nation pretending to some degree of civilization, which has eliminated the doctrine of force from application to controversies between man and man, and which furnishes judicial tribunals for the settlement of those controversies, and which is now and has been for years endeavoring internationally to secure a system under which the nations of the earth will create similar tribunals for the adjustment of international disputes without resort to force—whether a civilized nation can be content to perpetuate the existing condition of things."

Hours and wages of employees must be considered carefully, Senator Newlands declared, because the burdens which constitute the operating expenses of these corporations are in time transferred to the shippers," he added.

"They cannot long rest upon the investors, for if they rest upon them too heavily there will be a decline in the security and a consequent difficulty in securing the money for improvements and extensions and thus the public demands themselves will not be met."

Senator Newlands outlined the proposals to reorganize the interstate commerce commission and to create federal agencies which might supplant state authorities in exercising control over railroad financing. He said:

"The question will be considered as to whether the commission is now overloaded, and, if so, whether this difficulty should be met by relieving it of many of the supervising and administrative duties which it exercises or by enlarging and subdividing it so as to enable it to meet the strain of its various duties."

Campaign for Hospital Fund Starts Tomorrow; 200 Men Canvass Business District

The men who are to lead the campaign on behalf of the Hospital and Library, starting tomorrow, will assemble in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 7:30 this evening where the plan of operation will be explained and the territory divided among the workers. It is important that all of the men acting as captains and their assistants attend to night's meeting.

If the Newark City Hospital is to continue its activity for suffering humanity it must have immediate financial support. If the Newark Public Library is to go on with the splendid work it is doing it too must have funds with which to buy books and equipment necessary for its maintenance.

The Hospital and Library have never been and never will be entirely self-sustaining. If these institutions are to go ahead they must be supported by taxation, by endowment or by occasional appeals to the generosity of the public. Both the Hospital and the Library now receive a small sum of money annually from the city treasury, but the amount is far from sufficient to meet the requirements.

At the time the Hospital was opened the sum of $49,792.12 was received from public subscription and it was necessary for the trustees to borrow $20,000 to complete the payment for the new construction. This debt has been reduced to $17,500, and to carry this debt requires the annual payment of $1050 in interest.

The trustees of the Hospital confronted by the mortgage debt and the lack of funds with which to meet the interest payments decided upon a campaign to start tomorrow and working with the board of managers, they have named a committee of 200 men and women to carry on the work. The men will begin canvassing the business section of the city Tuesday and the women the residential section November 27.

Nobody is asked to give a large amount or a definite amount. Nobody who can not afford it is to be asked to contribute anything. The plan is to ask the consumers of natural gas to give one-half of their interest in the escrow fund. Out of the sum obtained the hospital debt is to be paid and the remaining money is to be divided equally between the Hospital and the Library.

There is always opposition to every plan to raise money and this one is not an exception to the rule. First, there are those who for one reason or another are opposed to either the Hospital or the Library. Second, there is a belief in the minds of some that it is an effort to "hold up" the gas consumers and make them give whether or not they desire to do so. The report that the consumers as a whole will be bound by the action of the majority is not true. If 99 out of every 100 agreed to give half of his interest in the fund the remaining one will still be free to do as he pleases with his share. Third, there are those who are opposed to charity of this sort and believe that the whole burden should be borne by taxation.

In the half page advertisement in this issue will be found a copy of the agreement the gas consumers will be asked to sign.

If the reader will clip, sign and send the coupon to Chairman H. D. Woodbridge, 406 Newark Trust building, it will encourage the workers and lighten the work of the solicitors.

The United States supreme court will hear the Newark gas case involving the disposition of the escrow fund on December 4th. Should the decision be favorable to the gas company the agreement signed by the gas consumers will of course be void.

Are you in favor of giving needed support to the Hospital and the Library? Where do you stand? Please be prepared to give the solicitors a prompt and favorable decision. They have many people to see and only a short time to make the canvass.

The campaign starts tomorrow, Nov. 21st. Are you a friend of the Hospital and the Library?

HEADS OF FOUR BROTHERHOODS VISIT PRESIDENT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Washington, Nov. 20.—While it was insisted they came only to pay their respects, the heads of the four great railway brotherhoods made an engagement at the White House today to confer with President Wilson late in the afternoon. It was expected that the eight hour day fight and probably the plans for co-operation of the brotherhoods with the American Federation of Labor would be discussed, if only briefly.

The leaders will see the president at 5:45 p. m. and at 6 o'clock the president will confer with Representative Adamson, author of the present eight hour law and vice chairman of the joint congressional committee which began investigation of the railroad situation today.

In the president's address to congress next month, he will make recommendations for the remainder of the legislative program which was unfinished when congress adjourned. The brotherhood leaders proposed that part of the president's recommendations which propose investigation of railroad controversies before a strike or lockout is permitted. The American Federation of Labor has also gone on record as against the recommendation.

Plans for a co-ordination of efforts between the American Federation of Labor and the four great railway brotherhoods for an eight hour day fight said to have been formulated at a conference here yesterday are surrounded with considerable secrecy.

The brotherhood leaders who conferred with President Gompers and later expected to go to the White House had disappeared from the city but it was said they were to address the American Federation of Labor convention in Baltimore on the subject tomorrow. President Gompers was quoted as refusing to discuss the subject on the ground that it was to come before the convention.

TUG BOAT BOILER EXPLODES; TWO MEN ARE KILLED

New York, Nov. 20.—An explosion due apparently to a defective boiler cost the lives of at least two men—the captain and engineer—on a tugboat, the Rambler, on the Brooklyn water front today. The bodies of two other men, a fireman and a deckhand, are believed to be in the hold of the vessel, which sank at her pier. A score of other persons working on lighters in the vicinity were injured.

SOLDIER BROUGHT FROM BORDER ON FEDERAL CHARGE

Columbus, O., Nov. 20.—Private Thomas Payne of Toledo, a member of the Sixth regiment O. N. G., was brought to Columbus from El Paso by federal authorities today to answer a charge in United States court of having sent an obscene letter from Camp Willis to Miss Anna Jones of Memphis, Tenn. Payne has not yet been arraigned.

CLEVELAND LABOR MEN GIVE A DAY'S PAY FOR BUILDING

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Cleveland, Nov. 20.—Thousands of Cleveland workmen today were toiling for the cause of labor in mutual co-operation for the success of "give a day's pay day" for the benefit of the Labor Lyceum. With the money derived from the plan labor leaders will be enabled to continue at once the work of the new labor building, halted on account of lack of funds. They plan to contribute a day's wages has been endorsed by many labor unions.

AIRPLANE FLIGHT OF MISS LAW IS RECORD BREAKER

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] New York, Nov. 20.—The record breaking airplane flight of Ruth Law, began yesterday, in Chicago, terminated at Governor's Island here at 9:40 a. m. today after stops at Hornell and Binghamton, N. Y. The final 152 miles from Binghamton to this city was covered this morning in two hours and two minutes and the entire journey, 332 miles in an air line, in the actual flying time of 9 hours and one minute.

Miss Law was greeted on her arrival at Governor's Island by Major General and Mrs. Leonard Wood, who congratulated her on her achievement. She was considerably chilled and was taken to the house of one of the officers at the post to recuperate.

She had little to say about her flight except that she had to fly much lower than she wanted to, on account of the haze. It was the cause of remark among those who examined her machine here that its structure was such as to expose her to the air more than in the case in most modern airplanes. The pilot's seat is placed on a projection in front of the machine so that the aviator in it gets the full force of the wind. The machine used by Victor Carleson, previous holder of the American non-stop record established in a flight Nov. 2, from Chicago to New York was of the fuselage type, in the cockpit of which he was snugly protected from the wind. In the present flight Miss Law bettered Carleson's record by about 100 miles making the 332 miles in an air line from Chicago to Hornell, N. Y., where she arrived yesterday without stopping.

JURY GETS CASE INVOLVING BIG WAR CONTRACT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Cleveland, Nov. 20.—A jury, which for the past five weeks has been trying the $800,000 commission suit of Henry S. Chapman, against the Peerless Motor Car Company, today began deliberation for a verdict. The case was based on a contract Chapman claims to have had with the motor company by which he was to have exclusive rights to sell war trucks to the British government. Chapman's suit is for commission on $3,000,000 worth of trucks sold up to the time the suit was filed.

ALLIES Expected to Pursue the Advantage Resulting From Capture of Monastir

SERBIANS ON NATIVE SOIL

Re-establish Capital Within Boundaries of Crushed Kingdom and Experts Look for Prompt Pursuit of Fleeing Troops—Minister of Teutonic Allies is Asked to Leave Greece

London, Nov. 20.—The capture of Monastir by General Sarraill's army in Macedonia is looked upon by entente military writers as of notable political importance but opinions appear to be divided as to whether it will be followed by military developments of sweeping character.

Events of the next day or two are expected to show whether the capture of the Macedonian capital will require a period of rest before starting a new advance or whether the pursuit of the retreating German-Bulgarian force is to be pressed, despite adverse weather conditions. In some quarters an advance by the entente forces along the road to Pilep is forecast, to be followed by a thrust from Pilep toward Negotin, on the Vardar, with the object of outflanking the Bulgarians and opening up the frontier passes.

The situation in Greece apparently has reached another of its critical stages. Following the demand by the entente for the turning over of virtually all the arms, artillery and munitions of the Greek army, it is reported today in a news agency dispatch from Athens that the ministers of the central powers have been ordered by the entente authorities to leave Greece by Wednesday.

After having been for months men without a country, the Serbians are again to establish their capital on native soil. Monastir, in southern Serbia, for which the entente forces have been struggling since the advance from their base at Saloniki began, has been evacuated by the German and Bulgarian forces and occupied by the French and a considerable number of Serbs.

The French and Serbians having captured the crest of hills partly surrounding the valley town, the Germans found their position untenable and withdrew, according to Berlin, to a new position to the north of Monastir. Unofficial advices from Saloniki say that a temporary capital of Serbia will be immediately established at Monastir. With the reoccupation of Monastir the railway line from the entente allied base at Saloniki now is in entente hands.

The victory of General Sarraill's armies on the western end of the Macedonian front which resulted yesterday in the capture of Monastir, is being vigorously followed up.

The German-Bulgarian forces which evacuated the city as the result of the successful flanking movement by the French and Serbians, are still in full retreat, Paris reports today, and are being relentlessly pursued. Already several towns north of Monastir have been taken by entente troops pushing out from the city and war supplies captured.

Press dispatches depict Monastir as virtually destroyed by fire and explosions and deserted by the population and describe the retreat of its defenders as a rout. Berlin however, declares the new positions chosen north of Monastir were occupied without entente pressure being felt and adds that fresh German forces have arrived on the scene. It asserts further that Serbian attempts to advance along the Moglenia front east of the Monastir region were defeated.

The position of Rumania appears increasingly precarious. General von Falkenhayn's armies are continuing to force their way southward from the Transylvania border and Petrograd admits further retirement of the Rumanians in the Jiu valley region.

The greatest peril to the Rumanians, according to the view of the entente military critics, lies in the reported cutting of the railway from the Danube to Craiova, threatening the flank of the Rumanian army south of Vulcan Pass and making the positions of the Russian army at Orsova hazardous.

TORCH APPLIED TO MONASTIR AS GERMANS FLEE

London, Nov. 20.—The retreat of the German-Bulgarian force from Monastir in the direction of Pilep is a definite, says a dispatch to the Wireless Press from Rome today. The entente troops are pursuing the fleeing force and have occupied villages north of Monastir, taking prisoners as they advanced, the dispatch adds.

DR. ARMGAARD GRAVES NEVER A SPY FOR GERMANY, SAYS PRINCE VON HATZFELDT

Dr. Armgaard Graves (right) and his attorney, in Washington.

That Dr. Armgaard Graves, spy who was recently arrested on the charge of attempting to obtain $3,000 from Countess von Bernstorff, wife of the German ambassador, for three smuggled letters, was never employed by the German secret service is the statement of Prince von Hatzfeldt, counselor of the German embassy at Washington, who secured Graves' arrest. Hatzfeldt says Graves offered his services as a spy to the German embassy at Washington when the war broke out, but that the offer was firmly refused.

OFFICIALS VISIT AM. BOTTLE CO. PLANT TODAY

Newark this afternoon was invaded by 100 officials of the Owens Bottle Machine company, of Toledo, who arrived in this city at 3 o'clock via the Baltimore and Ohio railroad in a special train of nine cars.

The visiting delegation was met at the station by a reception committee from the American Bottle plant and of the Chamber of Commerce. The visitors were taken for their annual inspection of the plant this afternoon and tonight at 10:30 o'clock their train is scheduled to return to Toledo.

Just what the result of the officials' meeting here today will be relative to changes in the local plant, is not known, but it is rumored that the visit is one of importance.

NEW GERMAN FORCE ON MACEDONIA FRONT; SUCCESS IN RUMANIA

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Berlin, Nov. 20 (Wireless to Sayville).—Attacks were made by the British yesterday on the Somme front between Serre and Beaumont and south of Miraumont. The war office announces that these assaults failed with heavy losses to the attackers. The British were driven from the western part of Grandcourt.

The Austro-German campaign against the Rumanians and their Russian allies has gained further success, the war office announces. Near Campulung the Rumanians, whose forces are demoralized, made attacks yesterday but were repulsed.

New German formations have reached the Macedonian front, it is announced officially. The new positions north of Monastir were taken up without pressure from the allies. Serbian advances in the Moglenia region were repulsed.

Surgeons are endeavoring to save the girl's life.

According to the police, Poto shot the girl through the head, in the hip and through the breast. After the shooting, it is alleged Poto fled on a motorcycle. The shooting occurred at the girl's home at Marlboro, near here. The girl's father is said to have forbidden Poto to visit her.

Later Poto shot himself three times on the street here and is believed to be dying in a hospital.

GOVERNMENT LOANS FOR HOME BUILDERS URGED BY A. F. OF L.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Baltimore, Md., Nov. 20.—Congress will be urged to pass legislation whereby money on deposit in the postal savings bank may be loaned to municipalities for the purpose of building model homes for its citizens, in accordance with a resolution unanimously adopted by the American Federation of Labor convention today. An alternative suggestion, contained in the resolution, is that the government shall establish such a system of credits that the people may borrow money for a long term of years, at a low rate of interest, to build their own homes.

"We believe it is an easy matter for the government to take such steps to relieve the working people in the industrial centers of the country from the lack of decent habitations," the resolution says.

The action of the Chicago board of education in dropping 33 teachers "in defiance of the superintendent's recommendation," was condemned in a resolution introduced by Mrs. Ida Fursman of the American Federation of Teachers, and adopted today.

CORRUPTION In West Virginia Election Scored by Governor in Message to Assembly

SPECIAL SESSION CALLED

Charges Open Repeating of Unlawful Voters, Intimidation and Bribery of Election Officials and Recommends Changes in the Laws That Are Hoped to Remedy the Situation

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 20.—West Virginia's specially convened session of the legislature immediately upon its meeting today listened to Gov. H. D. Hatfield's message which was a caustic arraignment of political corruption which it is charged was prevalent in the conduct of the election on November 7, and also recommended changes in the election laws that are hoped to remedy the situation.

The message was read in the senate and in the house amid the most intense interest in the expectation that the governor would make specifically some of the charges touched upon in the call for the special session. The governor declared it was not his intention or desire to advocate anything revolutionary or obnoxious or anything that will handicap the "incoming executive in his inherent rights, but to see that even-handed justice is given, nearly that an opportunity be given the legislature to protect the elective officials against those threats which have been made almost daily since November 7, the day of election.

"By methods as reprehensible as they are corrupt by bribery, open intimidation and open repeating of unlawful voters in certain counties of the state," the governor said in his message, "a desperate and unscrupulous effort to get possession of the executive machinery of the state has apparently succeeded. I have made investigation of these conditions and further investigation will be made that citizens of West Virginia may know just how bad these conditions really are. It has come to my knowledge that it is the purpose of those who have made efforts to seize at all costs for their own base uses the executive power of the state, to ruthlessly and in violation of all law continue their purpose by contesting the seats of the duly elected Republican officials and wrongfully depriving them of their office, by removing appointive officials with fixed terms of office, regardless of their fairness or former service to the state and by other similar acts subversive to good government and contrary to the welfare of the state."

"I believe my plain duty after reading of such revolutionary threats from one who aspires to be governor, to risk no chance of what the future has in store for those who have responsible elective and appointive positions."

The special session was called last week by Governor Hatfield to amend the constitution and provide for the investigation of alleged frauds in the general election. The new legislature is divided in politics, the senate being Republican and the house Democratic.

BUSINESS MEN ASK COMPANY TO ARBITRATE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Toledo, Nov. 20.—Toledo business men last night appealed to Mayor Charles M. Milroy requesting him to demand arbitration of the differences which resulted in the strike of more than 100 switchboard operators of the Ohio State Telephone company. Business men complain that the service which the company is attempting to give with a few non-union girls is inadequate and harmful to their business. It is expected that Mayor Milroy will call officials of the company and union today and seek to settle the strike.

The strikers were joined this morning by 150 linemen who voted on Saturday night to quit their posts in sympathy with the operators. Wages paid operators before the strike ranged from six to ten dollars a week, union officials declare.

TRIES TO FEED DOZEN AT COST OF $20 A WEEK

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Chicago, Nov. 20.—Twelve persons, who after eating feasts of chicken, turkey, roast beef and vegetables last night and then prepared to go on short rations in the diet test of the municipal health department, were given a two day respite today. John Dill Robertson, health commissioner, had announced that he expected to feed the twelve, six men and six women—for two weeks for $20 a week, or at the rate of a little more than eight cents a meal. He said today however, that he had been forced to postpone the beginning of the experiment until Wednesday because he has found that the kitchen which is to be used must be especially prepared.

The experiment is to be made in an effort to demonstrate a method of reducing the cost of living.

Men of Newark

GEORGE A. SIEBANOLLER, PROPRIETOR OF THE ALHAMBRA theatre in the Arcade, is one of the best known amusement promoters in Ohio, having had a number of years experience in the moving picture business in several of the states leading cities.

Mr. Siebanoller was born at Upper Sandusky, Wyandot county, O., and spent practically all of his boyhood upon his father's farm, his parents still residing on the old homestead west of the county seat. He has many connections in that vicinity, thrifty, prosperous German farmers, all well to do and now enjoying the fruits of their industry.

At the age of sixteen Mr. Siebanoller went to Findlay, O., where he secured employment but later returned home to assume the management of his father's farms. He was quite successful but being anxious to enter business in a city left for Akron, O., after several years at home, and with his brother-in-law purchased a moving picture theatre, which Mr. Siebanoller operated for two years. During this time he went to Massillon and purchased the Grand theatre, operating it for three years.

He then came to Newark and purchased the old Orpheum theatre in the Arcade and immediately started to wreck the same and completely remodel it at a cost of several thousands of dollars. The entrance was changed from the west end of the Arcade to the Arcade annex, new floors were laid, new seats installed and the theatre handsomely redecorated. Retiring rooms for ladies and gentlemen were added and the theatre was made comfortable and cozy and the seating capacity was greatly increased.

Manager Siebanoller then arranged for the best picture service that could be secured and his pictures since have been a household word, his picture house being one of the most popular amusement places in the city. He has contracted for the Paramount service, which includes such well known producers as Jesse Lasky, Famous Players, Oliver Morosco and the Palace Corporation. This company produces two new pictures weekly and they are shown at the Alhambra every Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday, those four days being known to the patrons as "Paramount Days."

The World's Film Corporation, the William A. Brady company, which is said to be a rival of the Paramount company for honors, and which has under contract many of the world's most famous players, exhibits its pictures at the Alhambra every Wednesday and Thursday. At the present time Earl Williams in "The Scarlet Woman," a serial in twelve periods is being shown at the Alhambra, and is said to be one of the best pictures ever screened, each number being a story in itself.

Mr. Siebanoller was married at Massillon, O., to Miss Verna Agler, a very charming young woman, who has been a great aid to her husband in his business. Fraternally he is a member of the Elks and K. of C.

"LITERARY" WORK INTERRUPTED BY SQUAD OF POLICE

Shortly after 12:00 o'clock Saturday night, Chief of Police Sheridan and Patrolmen Stewart, Harter and Buehler, made a raid on the "Washington Literary Society," located in the rear of the Weiant store in Hudson avenue, and arrested 12 colored members while engaged in their intellectual pursuit.

Three white men also were caught in the net when the police walked in on the society's outer guard, who left his post for a breath of air. As the guard walked out of the stairway leading up to the club, the officers walked in and lined up the men who were engaged in a mathematical problem of adding the numbers on two square pieces of bone, which resembled lumps of sugar.

Two trips were made to the city prison by the patrol before all of the members could be accommodated. Just before the wagon pulled away from the club with its first load, one of the men inside dropped the square looking objects out of the machine. They fell at the feet of Driver William Hinger, who gathered them up for evidence.

The raid was pulled after Chief Sheridan had climbed a ladder to the roof of a building in the rear of the club, and had heard the society members talking numerals.

"That's not ritual work," Sheridan said to the officers when he returned from his investigation, "it's a crap game."

Sunday afternoon the 12 men were arraigned in police court, and all pleaded guilty to gambling. James Lewis, charged with suffering gambling was fined $15 and costs and the other disciples of the "Washington Literary Society" were each fined $10 and costs.

The three white men were released Saturday night on bail but this afternoon were to be arraigned before Mayor Bigbee.

FARM BUREAU ASSO. HAS ONE-FOURTH OF REQUIRED NUMBER

The organization committee of the Licking county farm bureau association met Saturday afternoon at the chamber of commerce headquarters and received the first report from committeemen who are working for memberships in the new organization.

Through some misunderstanding over the date, not many of the workers throughout the county turned in their reports, but the committee is able to state that more than one-fourth of the number of memberships required to obtain federal and state aid in providing a county agricultural advisor have been signed up. This is very encouraging and the committee is confident that in a few weeks enough memberships will have been obtained to call a meeting at which permanent officers will be elected and the work of the bureau mapped out.

Letters are being sent out to the various workers throughout the county requesting them to send in their application cards, signed or unsigned, by Saturday, Nov. 25, so that the committee can make an estimate of what further work must be done.

The Ohio state grange convention will be held in Newark Dec. 11-15 inclusive and it is the hope of the committee to have a permanent organization effected before that gathering.

plusive and it is the hope of the committee to have a permanent organization effected before that gathering.

FREE EMPLOYMENT BUREAU WILL BE EXPLAINED TO C. OF C.

Chairman Clarence Heisey, of the membership council of the chamber of commerce, has arranged to have C. H. Mayhugh, assistant statistician of the industrial commission of Ohio, address a meeting of his bureau on next Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Mayhugh was the man responsible for the local chamber securing the system for the establishing of an employment bureau in this city. He will tell the members Thursday night of the system now employed throughout the state where the bureaus are under the control of the industrial commission, of its distribution of labor and of the elimination of the pauper.

This meeting, Chairman Heisey points out, will be of vital interest to every employer of labor in Newark and requests that every one of the 43 groups represented in the membership council be at the meeting.

POET SINGS FOR HER SUPPER; AID FOR Y. W. C. A.

"Potatoes, apples, pumpkins, pies. Food that bakes or boils or fries; Flour for bread or cake of spice Sugar, beans, corn-meal or rice. Bring them all to our dining hall On Fourth street Nov. 25th that's all."

Thus does the Y. W. C. A. poet sing for her supper.

Harvest day is coming again. In fact it is to become one of the regular autumn fet days to be given a place on the calendar along with Halloween and Thanksgiving.

What is this new Festival?

It's Harvest Day at the Y. W. C. A.

Those good friends who helped to make the first Harvest Day so successful are asked to remember this year's celebration in equally generous measure.

No one needs the reminder that food-stuffs are higher this year, for this very reason if each farmer, store-keeper or householder gives what he can from his store 'twill lay no one heavily. And think of the satisfaction and joy our good 'cats' will give the hungry girls gathered round the Y. W. C. A. table in the coming winter days.

AMERICAN SHIP IN DISTRESS OFF ENGLISH COAST

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM
Berlin, Nov. 20 (By Wireless to Associated Press).—The American steamship Siberia, according to wireless reports received here, is stranded on the East Goodwin Sands near Dover and is asking for help. The officers of the Siberia say it is impossible to launch boats owing to the heavy seas.

How often have you hankered for the old home Apple Butter?

More times than you can count, of course—for how could one ever forget that wonderful taste?

How recollections flood back at the thought of it! Into one's mind steals a picture of the quaint old homestead, hiding in the cool shadows of stately maples and elms; and of the sweet-scented orchard, heavily laden in fall with Baldwins and Pippins and rosey-cheeked Winesaps.

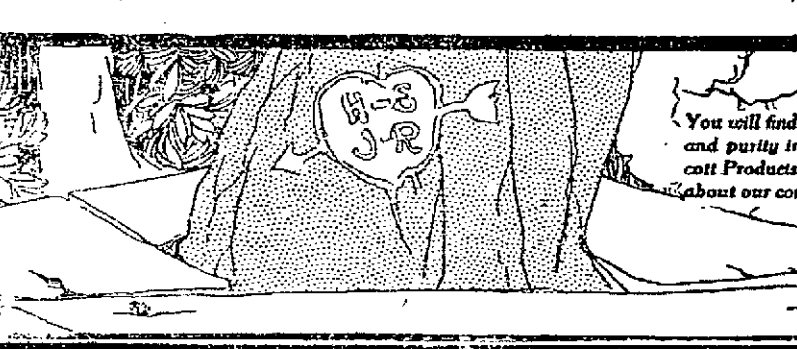

And, ah, when apples were ripe and ready, what an event was apple butter time on the old homestead! How every one pitched in with a hearty good will to make this delight of the autumn! And such a royal feast as there was that evening—!

"Yes," you say, "and if I might only enjoy such a feast again." The minute you taste Lippincott Apple Butter you'll realize you have at last found the answer to your wish. And no wonder! Just consider how Lippincott Apple Butter is made—

We follow a famous recipe used on an old New England homestead for over fifty years. We use nothing but the choicest and tarest of apples, the most fragrant of spices, and the purest of white granulated sugar.

Order a trial jar now—enjoy again the old home taste you've hankered for. 15c and 25c jars at all good grocers.

PETITION ASKS FOR MOTOR TRUCKS IN TWO FIRE STATIONS

The city council at its regular meeting tonight will be confronted with two petitions asking that a motor fire truck be installed at both the North and West End stations. An ordinance prepared for introduction at the last meeting, but held up on account of the election, also will be presented.

This ordinance is a measure providing for council to appoint a city planning commission to work without pay in outlining improvements for the city at intervals, the city commission will form plans for beautifying the city systematically and then present them to the council for action.

Aside from the petitions and the ordinance nothing important outside of routine business is scheduled unless council decides to discuss the gas question, relative to the low pressure several days ago.

CHIROPRACTIC

Chiropactic is based upon the knowledge of the brain, spinal column, spinal cord and the nerves emanating therefrom. Pressure on a nerve at the opening where it leaves the spinal column, will cause disease in that organ or tissue at which the nerve ends. The Chiropactor adjusts with his hands and WITHOUT DRUGS OR KNIFE, the displaced vertebrae, which relieves the pressure and enables Nature to restore normal conditions—Health.

The beneficial results which Nature produced after the Chiropactor adjusted the cause in some long standing obstinate ailments, demonstrate the merits of Chiropactic.

"There will also come up the question as to whether the nation or the states should create the great organizations that serve the public of interstate commerce. Thus far, we have been content to allow the states to create these corporations, these railroad companies."

Commenting on suggestions that railroad taxation be put in the hands of federal authorities, exclusively, Senator Newlands said:

"We find the greatest diversity in the tax laws of various states, some states imposing heavy burdens upon these corporations and others imposing very light burdens; some taxing only the visible property, others taxing the intangible thing termed a franchise; some of them adopting the market price of the stocks and bonds as the standard measure of valuation, others contenting themselves simply with the physical valuation of the actual property within the boundaries of the state."

IN OUR great-great-grandfathers' time many New England families had a cask of rum in the cellar.

It was freely offered to guests (except children) and freely partaken of, even as coffee is today.

This old-time custom gradually passed out of existence, for our forefathers recognized it was harmful.

Another old-time custom—coffee drinking—is slowly passing in the same fashion and for the same reason.

The abandonment of coffee drinking is made easy nowadays by the use of Instant Postum, the pure cereal beverage with the coffee-like taste.

Unlike coffee, this purely American table drink contains no "caffeine" or other harmful substance.

Postum is now used daily in tens of thousands of the best of American homes where reason rules and health is valued.

EARNINGS IN ITS HISTORY ENJOYED BY R. & O. IN YEAR ENDING JUNE 30.

Net Revenue Increased Nearly 16 Per Cent, and Revenue was Ten Millions Larger than Best Year.

The nineteenth annual report of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is being distributed today to its 27,300 shareholders, covering the operations for the fiscal year ended June 30 and embracing 4,539 miles of main tracks and a total of 9,042 miles of all tracks.

The total revenues were $111,668,830.34, an increase of 21 per cent, and exceeding by $10,112,548 the next largest earnings of 1913. Operating expenses were $79,319,804.18, an increase of 24.08 per cent. Net revenue was $32,348,876.18, an increase of 15.99 per cent.

The report sums up the results of the year as follows:

The gross income from the year's operations was sufficient to enable the company to meet its fixed and other charges, to pay the established four per cent dividend upon the preferred stock; five per cent upon the common stock and to leave a surplus of $3,664,463.35.

The year was one of unprecedented business activity. The crops were unusually abundant and mining and manufacturing industries were exceedingly active throughout the year. The export demand, especially heavy because of the continuation of the great war abroad, taxed the terminal facilities at all of the Atlantic ports and, with the absence of sufficient vessels to move the tonnage offering, caused a congestion of traffic on the Eastern railroads, which was particularly severe during the winter months.

Because of this congestion it was necessary at times to hold for considerable periods for delivery to connections and for export, a large amount of traffic, which not only retarded the movement of cars, but added greatly to the transportation costs and hire of equipment charges. The company, however, handled a largely increased tonnage and the freight earnings and the total revenues were the greatest in its history. The passenger traffic approached the maximum of former years, notwithstanding the entire suspension of immigrant travel, which formerly contributed approximately one million dollars per annum to the company's revenue. There has been a steady increase in through passenger traffic over the lines, which was augmented during the past year by the general business activity and the special travel in connection with the Panama-Pacific Expositions at San Francisco and San Diego.

With the increased revenue available a liberal maintenance program was followed. The total expenditures for maintenance exceeded those of the previous year by something over twelve million dollars. While there were increases in practically all the maintenance accounts, the more important increases contributed to the improvement of track conditions and the repair and rebuilding of locomotives and freight cars, thereby increasing the efficiency of the company's plant as a transportation agency.

LAWS OF GOD

AS WELL AS MAN MADE LAWS FIX SEVENTH DAY AS SABBATH.

Evangelist Weaver Finds Biblical and Statutory Reasons for Observing the Seventh Day for Lords Day.

Holding steadily to the affirmative Evangelist H. A. Weaver delivered his second address last night at the Seventh-day Adventist church, 25 Sixth street, on the topic, "Which Day of the Week is the Christian Sabbath or Lord's Day?" He claimed that "numerous objections are raised to our affirmative teachings on this, to us as a people, vital principle. But none of these objections are valid when examined in the light of scripture teaching and the unbiased views of reliable writers of all denominations," he declared.

"Not infrequently it occurs that people who think of this matter fail utterly to differentiate between the moral or ten commandment law and the ceremonial law of Moses. Consequently when reading certain statements in the new testament which relate to the abolition of the typical and ceremonial system of law, they interpret them to mean that the ten commandments have been abolished, thus setting aside the Sabbath of the Lord which is enshrined in the bosom of the decalogue, and thus relieving Christians of today from the duty of obeying the command, 'Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.' The seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. Nothing could be farther from the truth as revealed in the writings of the bible itself, as I am prepared to show."

"The scripture record shows that the ten commandments were written by God himself with his own finger on tables of stone and were placed by Moses in the ark of the covenant underneath the mercy seat and directly beneath God's glorious presence which served as his temporary throne in the camp of Israel. But the ceremonial and judicial law was written by the hand of Moses in a book and placed in a receptacle in the side of the ark as a temporary arrangement."

"When the Lord gave detailed direction to Moses concerning the erection of the sanctuary service, which was wholly typical and shadowy of that which is in heaven, he told him where he should put the two tables of the divine law. His words were, 'And thou shalt put into the ark the testimony which I shall give thee, and thou shalt make a mercy seat of pure gold. . . . and thou shalt put the mercy seat above the ark, and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.' That Moses complied specifically with these directions is evident from the words: 'And he took and put the testimony into the ark, and put the mercy seat above upon the ark.'"

"But concerning the ceremonial law there is a different record indeed. Let us again look at the record. 'And it came to pass when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished, that Moses commanded the Levites which bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, saying, take this book of the law and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a witness against you.' This law, which embraced all the ceremonies, feasts, meats, drinks, new moons, typical sabbaths, etc., was added because of the unbelief of the people and, unlike the moral law, contained no efficacy or permanency. This was the law which the Lord, through the prophet Ezekiel, designated as 'statutes that were not good and judgments whereby they should not live.'"

"A glance at the ten commandment law, of which the Sabbath institution is a part, in the light of inspired comment, shows the enduring and immutable character of that law. John says that 'sin is the transgression of the law.' Paul says, 'I had not known sin except the law had said, thou shalt not covet.' James oldly asserts that one commandment is as binding as another and that the entire ten either stand or fall together. He says, 'For whosoever shall keep the whole law and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. For (that law, margin) which said, do not commit adultery, said also, do not kill.' Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law. So speak ye and so do as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.'"

"The claim is sometimes advanced, based on a statement of Paul in Rom. 6:14, 'ye are not under the law, but under grace,' that the expression 'under the law' means literally that Christians are not under obligations to keep the ten commandments. To us this verse teaches that to be 'under the law' is to be under the curse or condemnation of the law, because of having transgressed its just claims."

"Some hold to the idea that because Christ and the disciples plucked the corn, or more literally rubbed the wheat in their hands and blew out the chaff before eating it, on the Sabbath day, therefore, as the Jews charged him, he was guilty of breaking the Sabbath. What an absurd position is this to the one who understands fully the nature of the controversy between Christ and the Pharisees touching the Sabbath institution. Be it ever remembered that the basis of the controversy was not as to which day of the week is the Sabbath, but how shall the Sabbath be observed? In the long centuries of their apostasy from God preceding the first advent of Christ the Jews had heaped many thousands of senseless traditions upon the law of God and particularly upon the Sabbath institution. Accordingly at the time of Christ, no one was permitted to kill an insect on the Sabbath, for that would be a form of hunting. No one was permitted to wear shoes containing more than a certain number of nails, for that would be carrying a burden, etc. Edersheim, in his 'Life and Times of Jesus,' says, 'A plaster might be worn, provided its object was to prevent the wound getting worse, not to heal it, for that would have been a work. Ornaments which could not easily be taken off might be worn in ones courtyard. Similarly, a person might go about with wadding in his ear, but not with false teeth nor with a gold plug in the tooth. If a woman were to roll wheat to take away the husks, she would be guilty of sifting with a sieve. If she were rubbing the ends of the stalks, she would be guilty of threshing. If she were cleaning wheat adhered to the side of the stalk, she would be guilty of sifting. If she were bruising the stalk, she would be guilty of grinding. If she were throwing it up in her hands, she would be guilty of winnowing."

"From this it is clear that Christ, in plucking the corn was not breaking the Sabbath, but was transgressing their traditions which had made the otherwise wholesome and beautiful Sabbath institution a burden and dishonor. He gave to men the only correct interpretation of true Sabbath keeping, i. e., 'doing well on the Sabbath day.'"

"Which is the seventh day? This is a question often asked. Granting that the seventh day is the Sabbath, some may say, 'how shall we know certainly which is the identical seventh day at the present time?' Our answer is that first, all calendars of the world at present, Gregorian, Julian, Chinese, Jewish, etc., agree that Sunday is the first day of the week. Therefore the day which immediately precedes Sunday is the seventh day. Second, the civil statutes of all states where Sunday laws are in force designate the day as 'the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday.' Third, the ostensible reason given by many Christian people for observing Sunday is that the first day of the week commemorates the resurrection of Christ. This, together with the fact that the bible says that Christ arose from the dead on the first day of the week, (see Mark 16:9) is another proof that the day which all know to be Sunday is truly the first day of the week. Whatever proves Sunday to be the first day of the week proves Saturday to be the seventh day of the week, for these days are found one at each end of the week. Whatever species of argument that may be advanced, therefore which destroys the obligation to keep Saturday, the seventh day, because of lack of proof that it is the identical seventh day, also destroys the certainty of Sunday's being the first day of the week and hence the anniversary of Christ's resurrection. It also automatically nullifies all Sunday laws. The man who thinks that the Sabbath cannot be accurately kept because the world is round must by some herculean process make the earth flat on Sunday in order to keep that day."

Evangelist Weaver announced that on next Sunday night he will speak on the subject, "Who, When and by What Means was the Sabbath Changed From Saturday to Sunday?"

ESTABLISHED IN 1920.

Entered as Second Class Matter
March 10, 1922 at the postoffice at Newark, Ohio, under the Act of March 4, 1879.

The Governorship.

It will not escape the attention of aspiring politicians that the two foremost candidates of the recent election had been governors of states, and that a number of our recent presidents reached the White House by the same path.The governorship of a state offers far more chance to a man of first-class ability than any other political position. A United States senatorship is commonly considered a higher office. But the United States senate has never been a stepping stone to the White House.In a state governorship the executive has great opportunities to display personal leadership. He is or ought to be for the time being the biggest man of the group about him.
If he has sensible, constructive ideas, his position gives him great opportunities. He can initiate reforms, systematize business, remove wastes, inaugurate measures of social betterment. The news of these things spreads beyond state limits.
The politicians from far and near keep their eye on him. He is called on for addresses over a wide territory, and soon acquires a national reputation.The member of congress on the other hand, is tied down by the traditions of an unwieldy body. He finds men of equal ability, great experience, and wider influence who have opposite convictions. He finds himself held down by the red tape of committees, and the pressure of a vast system of conflicting interests.
It may be years before he gets any chance to make himself heard.There are many disappointments though in the path of ambitious governors. Commonly they have to come from a state regarded as doubtful before they are considered presidential possibilities. And many reputations that look big inside of state limits begin to dwindle and fade the moment they are offered before a wider audience.The eyes of the nation are on Ohio without whose 24 electoral votes Woodrow Wilson would have been defeated and a conspicuous figure in public affairs the next two years will be Ohio's governor, James M. Cox.
When Mr. Cox became governor of this state four years ago he showed ability and strong leadership. He carried out his party's platform and during his administration numerous progressive laws were enacted. Some of the measures that were made into laws excited much opposition from interests that were considered presidential possibilities. And many reputations that look big inside of state limits began to dwindle and fade the moment they are offered before a wider audience.

How to Live Long.

Ex-senator Chauncey M. Depew, philosopher and ready after dinner talker, has six suggestions to make to those who would live beyond the allotted three score and ten years.
Here they are:Get up early no matter what time
you go to bed.
Cut out tobacco and alcohol if they disagree with you.
Have an eye for a pretty girl—and tell your wife all about her.
Keep your mind serene. Choleric peons die early.
Have a hobby like golf.
Be charitable, not in your will, but during your life.

Protect the Birds.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Audubon Societies in October, an interesting and new phase of the growing popularity of bird protection came out in the secretary's report. It developed that many real estate promoters are of late erecting bird boxes on their vacant lots and advertising to the effect that active measures are being taken to attract birds.This adds both an intrinsic and aesthetic value, when bird loving people are attracted to the place.

Issue for 1920.

(Baltimore Sun.)
Mr. Bryan comes to the front in New York with the paramount issue for 1920—a "dry" Democracy.
For the next four years, he will devote himself to the purpose of getting the Democratic party to line up behind national prohibition, and incidentally behind woman suffrage.
We are rather disposed to think Mr.
Bryan has undertaken a large and very difficult task. But it is the early political bird who catches the fat issue, and nobody can compete with Mr. Bryan when it comes to creating and capturing an issue. He is certainly, barring Hobson, the first Democrat on the 1920 field with this banner, and we may be sure that he will wave it from now on with all his old-time enthusiasm.
The South and the Northwest combined to decide this election.
Both of them are largely prohibition territory. Perhaps, if Mr. Bryan can persuade the Democratic voters of these sections to adopt his slogan, they may elect a Democratic prohibition candidate four years hence, as they have just elected a Democratic progressive. Who knows? In the meantime no Democrat of importance will dispute Mr. Bryan's claim to priority as to this new Democratic issue.

Mr. Carranza.

(New York Evening Post.)
Carranza and his obstinate representatives at Atlantic City would do well to take to heart the lesson of Mr. Wilson's re-election. Precisely because the verdict at the polls must be accepted in large measure as an approval of the presidents patient Mexican policy, it is also a ratification, in advance, of Mr. Wilson's course if the president's patience should come to an end. If so long-suffering and hopeful a friend of the Mexican people is driven to drastic action, this country will feel that there was no other way out.
Of the president's good will Carranza has had proof these many months.
He now has proof of this country's good will, of its abhorrence of any dreams of conquest, and of its earnest desire to remain at peace with Mexico. If Carranza persists in making the immediate withdrawal of Pershing's forces the first condition of an agreement, he will be straining at an empty point of prestige to the impairing of his own vital interests.
He must know that the president and the American people would like nothing better than to withdraw Pershing's troops, if order and security in northern Mexico can be re-established, or even if an earnest move is made in that direction.

If we say roughly then that the East rejected and the West accepted the president, it is fair to assume that this represents the division of national opinion on the success of Mr. Wilson's domestic and foreign policies? We think not. The West did not go for Wilson because it was convinced of the soundness of a neutrality benevolent to the allies, or because it found his method of interference in Mexico essentially wise.
But the West did like the purpose and temper of Mr. Wilson's foreign policies. It liked his patience, it shared his desire to make sacrifices for peace, it approved the anti-imperialist basis of his attitude towards Mexico. The West surely, and large minorities elsewhere stood by the president because of the net re-fail in strength Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic. To enable those

Oh dear I am feelin' as silly,
As a withered and dried up old lily.
My mind's on the blink
I'm unable to think
For I really believed you were Willie.And that day when the editor told me,
Of the beautiful way that you told me,
I felt worried because
By all unwritten laws
You were due to come right back and sould me.But now since the dark clouds are riven,
I find life is still worth the livin'.
And I'll say as I should
You stand all to the good.
For actin' so sweet and forgivin'.I'd come to your city as hidden, Right straight to the spot where you're hidden.
But I've much fear
Words like these I would hear
Gilt out your poor fish, I was kiddin'.So Willie hold tight to that dollar.
For believe me there's others to follor,
And take it from me
If you win twenty-three
I never no never will hollar.But say what's the spiel about leavin'?
Don't do it, you'll have us all grieved.
Please stay in the game
And outside of the fame
We'll have fun, Willie, past all believein'.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. The "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them, 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

RAILROADS ARE TO BLAME FOR CAR SHORTAGE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, Nov. 20.—Railroad companies are, in a large measure, responsible themselves for the coal car shortage, according to B. F. Nigh, secretary to the Michigan-Ohio-Indiana Coal association, representing 500 retail coal dealers, who filed a protest with the Ohio Utilities Commission today against the proposed increase in demurrage charges as a means proposed by the railroads to relieve the car shortage.

"It is a well known fact," says Nigh in his petition filed with the state commission, "that the carriers average movement of cars is so slow, that, on best managed lines of the country, the average daily movement of all freight cars in service is but one mile per hour."

Nigh says this is one reason for the car shortage. In addition to this he says that the carriers do not promptly return coal car equipment to the home lines, that foreign lines are negligent in returning cars, often times loading them in opposite direction than homeward.

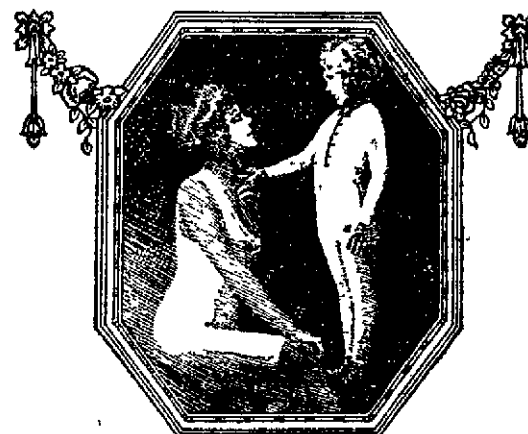

"Until it can be clearly shown that any responsibility rests upon the retail coal dealers for the car shortage they will resist any effort looking to a change in rules designed to assess charges, different from those which at present prevail," says Nigh.

ASK MAYOR'S REMOVAL.

Sandusky, O., Nov. 20.—Petitions for the removal of Mayor Koegle are being prepared here today. As soon as the petitions bear the signatures of twenty per cent. of the voters of the city, they will be presented to Judge R. H. Williams, of the court of common pleas, whose duty it will be to try Koegle.

Nov. 20th to 25th UNDERWEAR WEEK

The best Shops all over the country will show "MÉRODE" and "HARVARD MILLS" (Hand Finished) Fine Gauge Ribbed UNDERWEAR

THIS week, from Monday to Saturday, November 20th to 25th, is your opportunity to see, at your favorite store, the most attractive variety of the finest Underwear made for women and children.

Go and see it during this special display week whether you wish to purchase or not. Special courtesy in merely showing you these garments is part of the big national event in this Underwear Week. Look at your favorite store.

Quality, fit, comfort, warmth, beauty and real value for your money are the things you want, and it is on these points that the American standard in underwear has been set by "Mérode" and "Harvard Mills" garments. But you pay no more than for unknown kinds.

Every garment is cut individually by hand, cut accurately to fit perfectly; shrunk so that you may depend on that fit indefinitely; finished daintily by hand; made with a patent flatlock seam; made in every desired weight and every needed size in all garments.

Children's Garments and Union Suits are two specialties of which we are particularly proud. Every woman readily appreciates the reasons. New styles have been designed for the women who wear the pretty fashions of today, yet want to be cozy warm and properly protected from cold.

SAYS HOT WATER WASHES POISONS FROM THE LIVER

Everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it,
before breakfast.

To feel as fine as the proverbial fiddle, we must keep the liver washed clean, almost every morning, to prevent its sponge-like pores from clogging with indigestible material, sour bile and poisonous toxins, says
a noted physician.

If you get headaches, it's your liver. If you catch cold easily, it's your liver. If you wake up with a bad taste, furred tongue, nasty breath or stomach becomes rancid, it's your liver. Sallow skin, muddy complexion, watery eyes all denote liver uncleanness. Your liver is the most important, also the most abused and neglected organ of the body.
Few know its function or how to release the dammed-up body waste, bile and toxins. Most folks resort to violent calomel, which is a dangerous, salivating chemical which can only be used occasionally because it accumulates in the tissues, also attacks the bones.

Every man and woman, sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, to wash from the liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, the poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and refreshing the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Limestone phosphate does not restrict the diet like calomel, because it can not salivate, for it is harmless and you can eat anything afterwards.
It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, and any pharmacist will sell you a quarter pound, which is sufficient for a demonstration of how hot water and limestone phosphate cleans, stimulates and freshens the liver, keeping you feeling fit day in and day out.

To jump at conclusions may be to vault over the right of others.

losses all around and then by a decided general upturn.

Corn swayed with wheat. After opening in the market, the price of the market rallied to well above Saturday's level.

Oats were governed chiefly by the action of other cereals. The upturn of the market was accompanied by heavy purchasing on the part of a large number of buyers.

In provisions as in grain, rallies succeeded early weakness. Large exports compared with last year seemed more than to counterbalance lower quotations on hogs.

AUDITORIUM.
Auto Girls.

A large advance sale tells the tale, and houses are an assured fact today at the Auditorium where Shipods and Lake's "Auto Girls," the big American Wheel attraction appear.

Auditorium patrons are promised one of the fastest shows on the circuit, the "Auto Girls" break all speed limits when it comes to putting over the tuneless musical numbers. The comedy is guaranteed to end out a laugh a second. Featuring the show are Carol Schroder, Harry Seymour and James J. Lake almost too well known to need introduction but, for the benefit of the few who don't know them, it might be wise to say that Seymour is a Dutch comedian of more than ordinary ability, Lake stands alone in this class as a singing and dancing eccentric man and Carol Schroder is not only beautiful but she can act, sing and dance. The supporting company includes Jack Lew, Smiling Rose Allen, the popular burlesque, Billy Hallman, Matty Gott and George Walker. Special added feature with the "Auto Girls" will be Capt. Barnett and Son, "The "Mister 44."

"Mister 44," a Metro picture produced by the Yorke Film Corporation, with Harold Lockwood and May Allison in the stellar roles, is the big feature attraction at the Auditorium theatre on Wednesday. This is one of the finest productions in which the popular stars have ever appeared, and it is one of the most entertaining features ever released on the Metro program.

This feature together with the fifth episode of "The Crimson Stain Mystery," will make up the Auditorium super program for Wednesday.

"Shameen Dhu."

Clifford Hipple, a young romantic actor of pleasing stage presence and well cultivated singing voice will be seen at the Auditorium theatre next Friday night in a play that did much to add to the fame of Chauncey Olcott, one of the most successful impersonators of Irish character on our stage today, "Shameen Dhu." It is a play, told in a clever way, of things and people of one hundred years ago. It has to do with Irish wrongs and British suppression as viewed by those who live in the Emerald Isle, or rather, those of years ago who felt that their one duty to humanity was to plot against the English. But do not be deceived into the belief that this is a serious play, shifts later to the headquarters of the Buck Company in New York, with an amusing insight into the workings of the petticoat trade. At a crisis in the affairs of the Buck Company, Emma McChesney comes to the rescue in a most unexpected manner. Comedy prevails throughout the three acts, with also touches of genuine emotion. The piece is peculiarly adapted to the unique talents of Miss Stahl. Others in the company are thirty-two in number, all clever and talented players.

ALHAMBRA.

Though elopements are not so very uncommon, it is still rather unique for a young lady to elope with two men on the same day. This remarkable record is held by Louise Huff, the Famous Players-Paramount star. Of course it was in a motion picture that Miss Huff performed this unusual feat—an adaptation of Booth Tarkington's celebrated humorous novel "Seventeen" in which she is co-starring at the Alhambra tonight and tomorrow with Jack Pickford. It so happens that Jack dreams of his elopement with her and she actually runs off with another man. Director Robert C. Vignola decided to stage both the elopements—the dream and the real—on the same day, taking two racing roadsters out to a lonely country spot in order to stage the two scenes.

For the special attraction at the Alhambra theatre on Wednesday and Thursday the latest Brady-Made World Picture, "The Hidden Scar," has been secured. Ethel Clayton and Holbrook Blinn, both popular favorites here, are the stars.

"Dalton is set upon by thugs and mortally injured. On his death bed he makes out a will leaving his house to the woman he has wronged."

This is one of the many unusual situations which arise in "The Hidden Scar," the feature playing at the Alhambra theatre on Wednesday and Thursday in connection. Earl Williams in "The Scarlet Runner," a series of two reels every Wednesday and Thursday.

PRAISES MAGIC
HERE TOMORROW

The Youngstown Vindicator has the following today of the magical entertainers which appear at the Auditorium tomorrow:

Servais Leroy, Mme. Mercedes Talma and Bosco, a trio of magical entertainers opened a two day's engagement at the Park theatre Tuesday and they will be seen there again tonight. Leroy, Talma and Bosco present many illusions, sleight-of-hand tricks and pantomimes depending upon magic for their effects. They give a show equally as big as the one offered by Thurston or any of the other great magicians and their work is marvelous. There is much originality to their entertainment for they do many things no other magician has ever attempted here. To see three experts of this sort working in the audience doing all sorts of perplexing and humorous stunts in something different.

There is much comedy to the show. Bosco—and there is a new Bosco this season—is the funny man of the show. He not only appears in laughable feats of magic but also burlesques some of the stunts featured by his associates. Leroy, Talma and Bosco have a whole stageful of scenery and paraphernalia. They have lots of live stock and a big maned lion appears in the last illusion. There are ghosts, be-headed people spirit manifestations and goodness knows what during the course of the entertainment to send the shivers up and down one's back. If you miss this entertainment you miss one of the best ever seen here.

European Mystery People.

The management of the Auditorium will present a most unusual, unique and altogether attraction to its patrons tomorrow night when LeRoy, Talma and Bosco, the triple alliance of illusionists, transformists and necromancers bring their big company of European mystery people to this city. The whole gamut of amusement is run during the progress of this extraordinary entertainment. Comedy, tragedy, farce, illusions, Hindu mysteries, ledger-dance, sensational features and musical numbers of a high order are all so skillfully blended and dovetailed together that it is said to be the most satisfying entertainment seen in this country in a decade. In every city thus far visited, the press has been unanimous in proclaiming the offering to be the most meritorious and bewildering entertainment seen in years. Many effects entirely new to America will be presented, prominent among them being the famed Hindu rope mystery which they are showing to the American public. In fact it is the first time this feat has been presented outside the land of Buddha. More than 100 other equally astounding features will be presented. Their supporting company is a very large one. Seats now selling.

for it is not. It is an enjoyable love story, as we see the complications of two distinct love affairs that have apparently gone awry. Not only do we have an enjoyable story, but it is enlivened and brightened by a number of clever songs that are sung by Mr. Hipple, among them, "I Never Met a Girl Like You," and "An Irish Lullaby." This play should prove one of the enjoyable attractions of the current season. Seats will be on sale Wednesday at 10 a. m.

HARTMAN THEATRE.

The tripple alliance of Rose Stahl in the American comedy "Our Mrs. McChesney" ought attract capacity audiences to the Hartman theatre, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, November 27, 28 and 29, when Miss Stahl will appear at this most popular Columbus theatre in her latest, and many say, greatest success in many years. This new play has been taken from Edna Ferber's widely read Erma McChesney stories, the dramatization being made by George V. Hobart and Miss Ferber herself. In choosing the material from the various stories they have been extremely fortunate in selecting a chain of incidents making the whole consistent, amusing and always interesting play.

At the beginning, Emma McChesney is discovered in a small hotel in Sandusky, Ohio, in the course of her travels in the interests of the T. A. Buck Featherloom Petticoat. In a nearby town young Jack McChesney, her son, is at school, and it is here that the undaunted Emma rescues the boy from a youthful matrimonial escapade. The action of the play

M'DANIEL'S TEAM BATTLES TO A TIE WITH ZANESVILLE

Neither Team Able to Score a Point in Sunday Gridiron Classic at Zanesville.

Close to 1000 Newark and Zanesville football fans, Sunday afternoon at Zanesville saw the fast McDaniel football team of this city and the star Armco aggregation, battle through 50 minutes of sensational play to a no-decision. Neither team succeeded in crossing the others' goal line bringing the final count to a 0-0 verdict.

The McDaniels strengthened by the acquisition of two star backfield men from Mansfield, and with the line displaying more class than in any game this season, were unable to score on the husky Zanesville lads, who also were strengthened. Zanesville yesterday presented a more formidable appearance than on its trip to this city several weeks ago.

All of its players showed the result of much hard practice, forcing the locals to extend themselves to the limit to prevent being scored upon. Hutchinson, Lawson, Clayton and Patterson, in the back field for the River town boys, played a wonderful game, as did every man, on the Zanesville team.

Forward passes were frequent. And both teams were held many times for downs. Twice the locals backed Zanesville up against their goal posts, only to run against a stone wall and lose the ball. As many times, the McDaniels fought in the shadow of their goal posts, and succeeded in getting the ball on downs.

Three times, fullback Hughes of the McDaniel team dropped back for a try at field goal, but before he could get the ball away the Zanesville men were through the line and blocked the kick. This was due to Hughes not stepping back far enough from his line. Once the Armcos were within kicking distance, but tried a forward pass, which was broken up by the Macs. Both teams were often compelled to punt out of danger and several interesting kicking duels were staged between Hughes and Clayton. The former showed his ability in kicking, having a slight edge on his Zanesville rival for the honors.

About the best way to determine who played the best game on the McDaniel team, would be to start at the top of the lineup and read carefully every name down to the bottom and then reverse and read toward the top.

Jenkins and Jackson on the ends never played in better forms this season, while Smeltz and Bowser were never guilty of once letting their men get away from them of helping to break up a play. The two heavy guards, Leedy and Williams, opened holes large enough for the whole backfield to walk through and were big factors in the locale great defensive play.

Smith at center outplayed McNeely his opponent on the offensive while on the defensive pulled several spectacular tackles, that usually resulted in a Zanesville man hitting the turf, fuma with a thud. Harris playing quarter for the McDaniels sent his men into every play with plenty of "pep" and also carried the ball for several good gains.

In the backfield Carter, Hughes and Thull worked together like clock work although it was the first time this combination had ever played together. Hughes was in Zanesville game here, but only substituted for half a period, thus preventing the fans from getting a line on his work. But yesterday he was the line smashing demon, it requiring at least three Zanesville men to stop him when he carried the ball.

Thull, the new fullback brought to Newark by Hughes, from Mansfield, in his first game won a place in the hearts of Newark fans, by his consistent work. The Zanesville players were loud in their praise of Thull, claiming him their best fullback that ever visited their town.

All summed up, yesterday's contest was the best ever played in the Clay City and was attended by the largest crowd since the gridiron sport was first introduced in that city.

The game was clean and free from arguing. The fans while they pulled hard for their favorites did not resort to "heckling" each other. The treatment accorded the local boys and their friends at the Armco club rooms was the best ever and Messrs. R. E. Schrum and Walters, did every thing possible to make their guests feel at home.

Another game is being arranged between the two teams for a later date in this city and it is a sure bet that Zanesville will turn out as strong as Newark fans did yesterday, which was 250 strong.

7-7 TIE KEEPS MONSTER CROWD AT HIGH TENSION

Granville, O., Nov. 20.—The supporters of Denison nearly had heart failure here Saturday during the annual game with Ohio Wesleyan when Watkins, of Wesleyan, in the first period intercepted one of Rupp's passes and got away with sixty yards for a touchdown. A goal followed.

Neither side scored again until the final quarter when Brock received the pass in the very middle of the Wesleyan backfield and eluded all for a fifty yard run and touchdown. A goal made seven.

The game was full of thrillers. Twice Denison had the ball within fifteen yards of the goal and fumbled, Wesleyan recovering. For Wesleyan the line plunging of Evans, Watkins and Walters was wonderful. Boyer and Whitehouse played well in the line. For Denison, Lyne, Arthur, Brock and Earnshaw did the best work, the latter being on the receiving end of three of Denison's five successful forward passes. The line up:

Denison 7. Wesleyan 7.

FORMER NEWARK BOY A STAR IN ELK MINSTRELS

Frank J. Daily, an old Newark boy, former B. and O. mechanic at the local shops, and a charter member of the famous old Buckeye band, who left here about fifteen years ago to accept a position with the Erie railway and who has made good, being employed at present as a shop specialist and who travels over the entire Erie system, recently made a great hit as the interlocutor of the Elk minstrels at Meadville, Pa., Mr. Daily's present home. The theater was packed for two nights and the minstrel is said to have been one of the best ever given in that city. Mr. Daily received a great meade of praise in the Meadville papers.

BOWSER MUSSES GEORGE GABLE AT LANCASTER

Newark Man Proves He is Champion
When He Defeats Tough Man
in 29 Minutes.

Paul Bowser, Newark's middleweight wrestling champion, Saturday night at Lancaster, proved his claim to the title of champion and at the same time had the satisfaction of showing the Lancaster wrestling promoter and the fans of that city, that he was the wrong man to double-cross.

Paul was matched to meet George Gable, of Cincinnati, the man who wrestled Fred Dovers, in the Queen City, last season, in a finish bout. Promoter Scott of Lancaster informed the champion that the bout would draw a $200 house. This would net Bowser between $60 and $70 for his percentage of the receipts.

When Bowser and a party of Newark supporters reached Klinge's hall, the grappler was told by Scott that the receipts would be $50 and Bowser's share $15. The local man refused to go on for this amount, because he knew Gable to be a tough man.

Gable only a short time ago stayed three hours to a draw with Billy Schober, which was all the evidence needed to convince Paul that $15 was not enough money to meet a man of this class. Scott told the crowd of Bowser's refusal and said that Gable was at the theatre and ready to go on the mat for any sum. This brought hoots and cat calls from the crowd, which became incensed against the Newark man.

Even when Bowser in a short talk told them of the sum of money he was to receive and of the other times when he had appeared in Lancaster, twice for nothing and once when he donated over $35 to the Boy Scouts of that city. This was on the occasion of his defeating Ollie Smith, six times in seven minutes and forty-five seconds.

After the crowd had shown its unreasonableness by calling Paul a quitter, the Newark pride made the proposition that he would go on with Gable for one hour for $50 and a side bet of $100 or for a 30 minute limit bout, for $25. This latter proposition was accepted and the men stepped on the mat. A well known local fan who accompanied Bowser, placed a $10 to $4 bet that Bowser would gain the decision.

Gable went on the defensive at the start of the go and it was with great difficulty the local man could get his hands on the Cincinnati marvel. Finally 29 minutes were called by the timer and Bowser realized that he was not going to win and also that a Newark man was betting on him.

Grabbing his famous toe hold, Paul started after the fall. Gable bounced from the stage, but Bowser bounced with him. As the Cincinnati man fell Bowser went with him and Gable's nose was fractured by striking against the edge of the stage.

Gable got back on the mat and again Bowser grabbed his foot. This time the Cincinnati man crawled over the edge of the stage with Bowser hanging onto his foot. Then when he was about half over the edge of the platform, Paul gave a jerk and brought his man back on the mat where he applied the toe hold and in the real decision getting way. As he stepped over with his hold, Paul threw his body down on the foot, and the crack of Gable's leg could be heard all over the theatre. This settled the argument, giving Paul the decision in 29 minutes and 30 seconds. Gable refused to wrestle the other 30 seconds conceding the bout to Bowser. After the match, Young Gotch of Columbus, who was referee, told the audience that he had never witnessed such a hard 30 minutes battle and that he did not think Gable would ever be able to wrestle again.

Bowser too showed the result of much roughing, but he was satisfied. Hereafter the champion says, he'll never go to Lancaster until the money for his services is first deposited in a local bank.

DOUBLE BILL OF WRESTLING FOR THURSDAY

Bowser Meets Ed Conley, of Cleveland in Main Go—Metro and Reed Class in Finished Bout.

Another high class wrestling show is booked for Thursday night at the Auditorium, when Paul Bowser, world's middleweight champion, meets Edward Conley, a classy middleweight grappler, of Cleveland. And in the semi-windup, the fans will have the pleasure of seeing Charles Metro, the "terrible Turk" of Boston, in a finish bout with Ed Reed, the man who several weeks ago, tried to get a match with Bowser.

The semi-windup will no doubt attract as much attention as the main go, as there are some fans who want to see Reed win, while all of Bowser supporters will be on the job pulling for Metro to win.

Bowser and Metro are working out for their bouts at the Newark Physical Culture Institute, and both expect to be in the best of condition when time is called.

The seat sale will be opened Tuesday morning at the Auditorium for the theatre seats, while the stage seats are on sale now at all old stands. Thursday night should witness another such crowd as the one which saw Bowser win the Championship from Joe Turner.

"Stealing another's heart" and "heart harm" are neither police nor surgical terms.

He will also give demonstration of foot appliances necessary in the correction of foot troubles. This important event was arranged at great expense principally for you who have weak, tired, aching, calloused feet, for you who suffer from bunion pains and corns, or who have broken down arches, crooked toes, and hammer toes, for you who have tried fruitlessly to get relief. Not obliged to buy shoes here.

If you have flat foot, weak feet or broken down arches, no matter if you are already wearing arch supports, have your feet scientifically examined by this specialist and let him advise you what to do. If you have been using bunion and corn remedies that furnish temporary relief without correcting the cause be sure to get this scientific advice.

If you are one of the many thousands who have had trouble in being properly fitted to shapely foot-gear come to our store. The difficulty will be solved easily and simply and perfect foot comfort will be given you.

WARNING You may not realize it but those slight aches at the heels and ankles, those painful cramped toes, that body weariness and brain fog are typical of weak arches and likely to result in a serious derangement of the whole nervous system. Many people have mistaken these pains for rheumatism of the feet and have tried internal remedies to correct them when all they really needed was proper support of the feet arches.

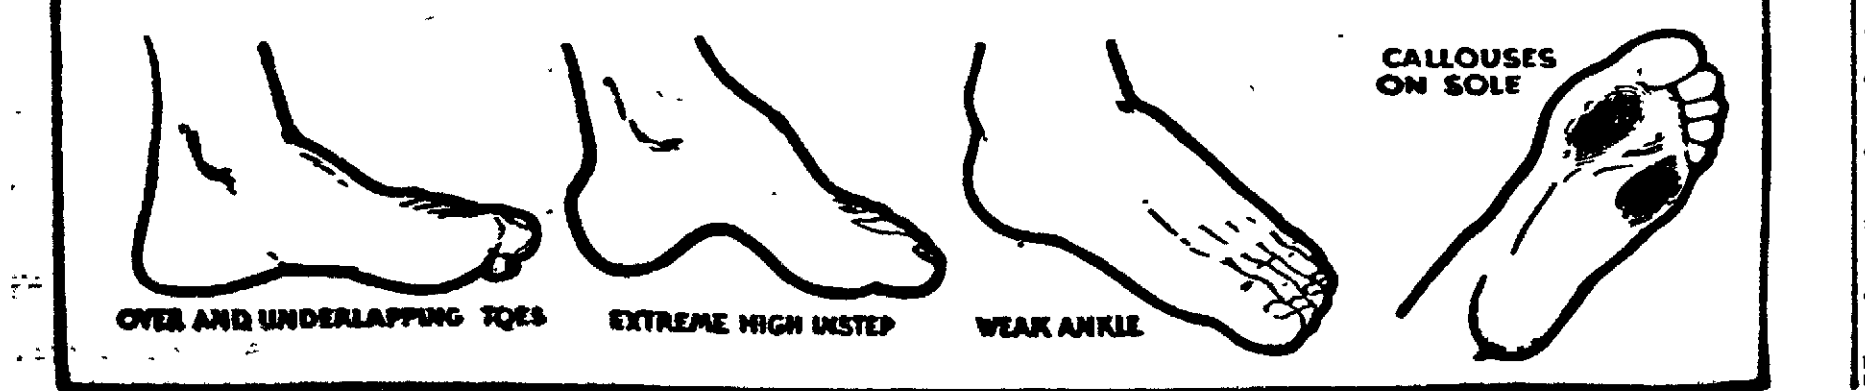

Reason For This Demonstration

It has been our ever constant aim to make this the most progressive shoe store in town. For months we have thoroughly investigated the efficiency of the service rendered users of Dr. Scholl's Foot Specialties and wearers of his appliances. We have seen people who previously walked with great difficulty now able to stand the most rigorous exercising of the feet, during long walks and long standing without the slightest annoyance. We have found every one of Dr. Scholl's corrective devices anatomically and scientifically perfect. To give our patrons and friends the fullest benefit of the Scholl Foot Comfort Service we have arranged this demonstration and will henceforth conduct in our store an orthopedic department for continued service of this character. We are headquarters for Scholl's Foot Comfort Specialties and Appliances.

Whatever your foot trouble may be, there is a Scholl appliance or device which will correct permanently the trouble from which you are suffering. Consult this noted specialist and let him advise you about your trouble.

WHEN THE GOOD NEWS REACHED NEWARK

It Created Excitement. But as week after week went by, and many well-known and highly respected Newark people spoke out freely, and their statements were published in the public press, there was no longer room for doubt. Newark people said: "This must be true."
Well, here is just such another statement, and it comes from Newark.

J. Donnelly, 19 W. Harrison street, Newark, says: "For years I was a railroader and I believe the jarring, together with exposure was responsible for my kidney trouble.
Pains across my back nearly bent me double and my back felt as though it were breaking. Often my back gave out on me and if I bent over, I had a hard job to straighten up. The doctor said I had lumbago, but it remained for Doan's Kidney Pills to help me. Two boxes relieved me."

Leaves Burning.

A bonfire of leaves in the yard
north of the Cherry Cigar company building, in South Fourth street, this morning, resulted in a fire alarm being sent in which called every apparatus in the city to the scene. The smoke from the bonfire crept up along the building and gave the appearance of the structure being ablaze. When firemen from Central station arrived they found the woman calmly raking leaves onto the blaze. And the excitement of the fire trucks and the hundreds of spectators did not deter her one moment from her work.

FACE FLOUR SHORTAGE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Cleveland, Nov. 20.—Cleveland is facing a serious flour shortage, dealers say and any miscalculation might leave the city absolutely without flour within a week. Wholesale grocers are said to have but a few days' supply on hand. Dealers say the railroads are unable to deliver orders on account of freight congestion.

Mrs. Emma Wetzel returned home after a weeks visit at the home of her brother Bradford Bollwine of Hebron, O.

COULDN'T FOOL HIM TWICE

Experience Proved that There was Nothing "Just As Good" as Father John's Medicine for Colds and Throat Troubles as a Body Builder

The victim of an unscrupulous druggist in a Pennsylvania town says that when he asked for Father John's Medicine the druggist persuaded him to take something else which was "just as good," according to the clerk.

"I might just as well have taken so much water," this writer continues. "I afterward went back and got Father John's Medicine and in a short time I felt the good effects. It increased my weight, gave me strength and helped my bronchial trouble."

In some localities this practice of substitution by druggists is an evil practice of vast proportions. The unscrupulous druggist who forces upon you a different preparation when you call for Father John's Medicine is doing you an injury.

Remember that Father John's Medicine is a doctor's prescription, pure and wholesome, free from opium, morphine, chloroform or any other dangerous drugs or alcohol and with a history of more than 50 years' success in the treatment of colds, throat troubles and as a tonic and body builder.
Begin taking it today; it will make you strong.

ARE YOU A FRIEND OF THE HOSPITAL AND THE PUBLIC LIBRARY?

BOTH OF THESE INSTITUTIONS ARE IN URGENT NEED. THE HOSPITAL'S MORT-GAGE DEBT OF $17,500 MUST BE PAID. THIS DEBT CARRIES WITH IT A $1,050 AN-NUAL INTEREST CHARGE AND THE ORGANIZATION IS WITHOUT FUNDS TO PAY
THE INTEREST. THE LIBRARY NEEDS FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TOO.

BEGINNING TUESDAY, NOV. 21, ONE HUNDRED NEWARK MEN WILL CALL UPON THE GAS CONSUMERS IN THE BUSINESS DISTRICT AND INVITE THEM TO CONTRIBUTE ONE-HALF OF THEIR INTEREST IN THE GAS ESCROW FUND TO
THE HOSPITAL AND LIBRARY. BEGINNING NOV. 27, ONE HUNDRED NEWARK
WOMEN WILL CANVASS THE RESIDENCE DISTRICTS INVITING THOSE NOT PRE-VIOUSLY CALLED UPON, TO CONTRIBUTE ONE-HALF OF THEIR SHARE OF THE FUND TO THE SAME CAUSE.

THE REPORT THAT THE MAJORITY WILL RULE IS ABSURD. NO GAS CON- SUMER CAN ASSIGN THE INTEREST OF ANY OTHER CONSUMER IN THE FUND.

OUT OF THE FUND TO BE RAISED THE HOSPITAL DEBT WILL FIRST BE PAID.
THE REMAINING SUM WILL BE DIVIDED EQUALLY BETWEEN THE LIBRARY AND THE HOSPITAL.

IF THE PEOPLE OF NEWARK WILL UNITE, THE BURDEN OF DEBT WILL BE LIFTED EASILY AND THESE TWO SPLENDID INSTITUTIONS WILL BE IN POSI-TION TO DO MORE EFFICIENT, MORE EFFECTIVE WORK. NOBODY IS ASKED TO GIVE MUCH BUT IF ALL WILL GIVE A LITTLE THE DESIRED END WILL BE REACHED. IT IS ESTIMATED THAT THE AVERAGE AMOUNT DUE THE GAS CON-SUMERS, IF THE COURT'S DECISION FAVORS THE CONSUMERS, IS $30. THE CON-SUMERS ARE ASKED TO GIVE HALF OF THIS SUM TO THE HOSPITAL AND LI-BRARY. WHO WILL REFUSE TO GIVE $15 TO PUT THE HOSPITAL OUT OF DEBT
AND PLACE THE LIBRARY UPON A FIRM FOOTING? IN SOME INSTANCES THE AMOUNT DUE CONSUMERS IS ABOVE $30 AND IN OTHERS IT IS UNDER THAT AMOUNT.

THOSE WHO DO NOT FEEL ABLE TO CONTRIBUTE TO THIS FUND WILL NOT BE EMBARRASSED BY ANY COMMITTEE. THE WORKERS INTEND TO CALL UPON ONLY THOSE WHO ARE ABLE TO ASSIST.

READ THE ATTACHED AGREEMENT.
IT IS THE SAME AS GAS CONSUMERS WILL BE ASKED TO SIGN.
